Silent Art Auction Catalogue

SILENT ART AUCTION

This year's Silent Art Auction features a selection of 80+ works by Miami-based artists, past exhibiting artists, and WaveMaker grantees with up to 50% of the proceeds from each final sale going to artists.

Works were selected through an open call by members of our 2026 Artist Auction Committee including: Westen Charles, Rafael Domenech, Adler Guerrier, Mette Tommerup, Cornelius Tulloch, Elizabeth Withstandley, and Antonia Wright. From painting and drawing, to textiles and photography, there's something for everyone!

Works are on view in person at Locust Projects' Spring Fling on Saturday, April 18 | 7-10pm.

ALL BIDDING TAKES PLACE IN PERSON. Register to bid at the door. If you'd like to buy now at fair market value, contact development@locustprojects.org.

Please note, while every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, some information may be subject to revision prior to the auction.

THANK YOU!

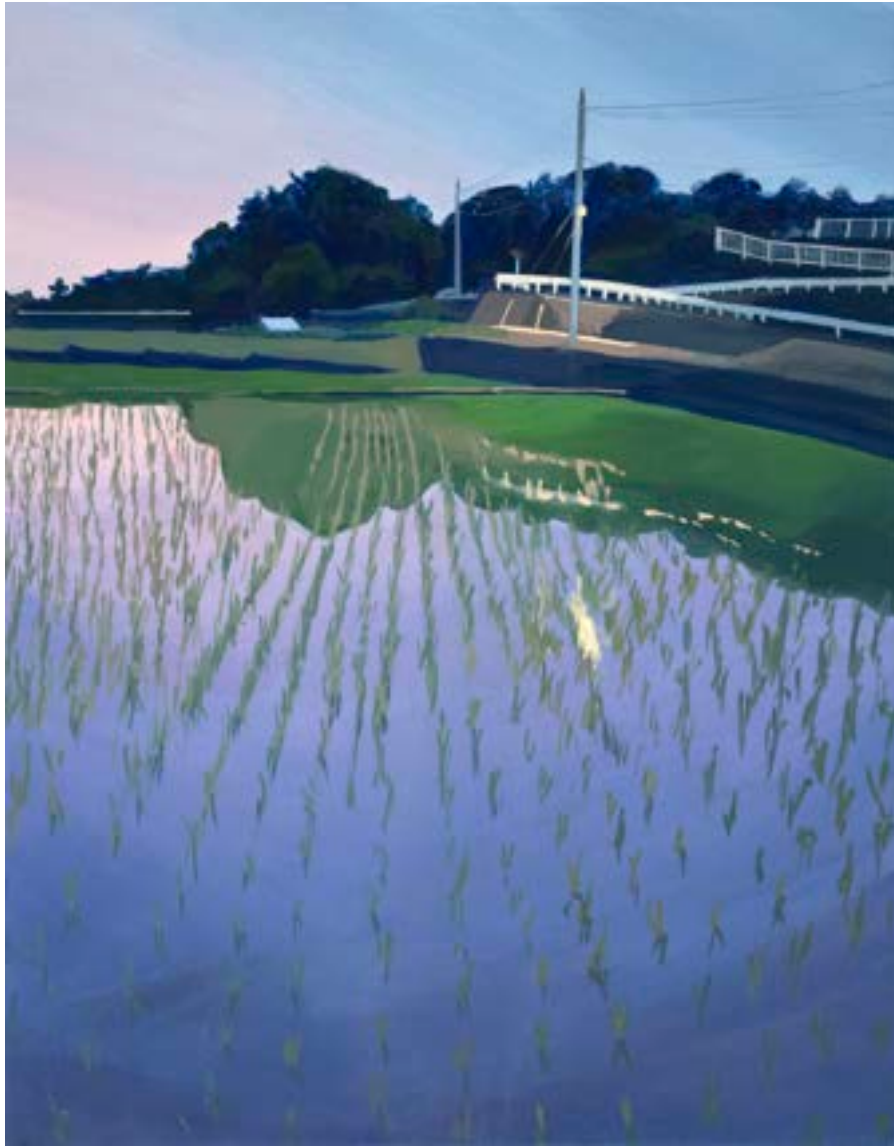

We are grateful for the generous support of our 2026 Spring Fling Art Auction donating artists, The Art Dome, Dot Fiftyone Gallery, and Jorge Garcia and Angel Perez.

Special thanks to I've Been Framed. Established in 1996 by sisters Cristina and Jennifer Coronel, Miami's favorite framer has supported Locust Projects' fundraisers for more than a decade.

Proceeds from Locust Projects 2026 Spring Fling Fundraiser support Locust Projects mission and education programs.

Proceeds Split: Artist 50% | Locust Projects 50%

Cara Despain is a past WaveMaker Grantee.

The piece will be completed by the artist—burned with the patron who buys the work.

To create the Slow Burn photo series, the artist strings dynamite fuse through holes in the frame and burns it inside the glass. This leaves a trail of destruction across a precious medium: landscape photography. These photos discuss manifest destiny, industrialization, and the ruin, taint, or scarring of something “pristine”.
